

Herbal Medicine Class at the Edge of Spring

Early Spring Bark Collection and Medicinal Preparation Saturday March 24th Noon-4pm

Learn a simple and effective way to gather and prepare barks for medicinal purposes. During the class we will take a walk, identifying medicinal trees and shrubs, on the way to harvesting a medicinal bark for preparation in class. Students will take home a tincture (or dried bark) they have collected in class, for home use. This is a hands-on class.
